

Privacy Notice for Website Visitors

a. Name and address of the responsible person

Controller within the meaning of the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation GDPR (hereinafter "GDPR") is NGM Aktiengesellschaft, Bahnstrasse 3, 9494 Schaan.

b. Data processing in general

Processing of personnel data on our website is limited to such data technically needed to provide a functional static website. The purpose of this website is to provide our clients with transparent information under the GDPR.

c. Description and scope of data processing

1. Provision of the website

Our system records data and information about the computer used by the user automatically and with every visit on our website. We do not perform any web analysis on our website and do not use any web analysis tools (e.g. Google Analytics). The previously mentioned user and visitor data will not be evaluated or analysed.

2. Cookies

This website does not use additional cookies to process personnel data.

d. Your Rights

1. Right to Information

You have the right to request information about your personal data that is stored by the Companies. A request for information, together with proof of identity, must be sent in writing to the controller (see e.).

Upon receipt of your request for information, you will be informed within the statutory period of 30 days. The information may be refused, restricted or postponed to the extent required by law or due to the prevailing interest of a third party or the company the request is addressed to.

The request for information may be combined with a request for rectification or erasure of data.

2. Right to Rectification or Erasure

You have the right to request, in writing and free of charge, the rectification or erasure of your personal data, insofar as these are incorrect or stored or processed without good reason. A reasoned request for rectification or erasure must be sent to the controller (see e), accompanied by a proof of identity.

Your request for rectification or erasure will be processed upon receipt within a reasonable time. Thereafter, the completion of your request for rectification or erasure will be confirmed to you.

Erasure may be prevented by legal regulations. In such a case, the Companies will process your personal data only to the extent necessary to comply with the statutory requirements.

3. Right to Objection or Cancellation

You have the right to object in writing, in whole or in part, to the processing of your personal data or to cancel your consent to the processing of such data. The objection or cancellation must be addressed in writing to the controller (see e.).

The receipt of your objection or cancellation will be confirmed to you and thereafter the concerned data will be deleted.

To comply with an objection or cancellation may be contrary to statutory regulations. In such a case, the Companies will process your personal data only to the extent necessary to comply with the statutory requirements.

4. Right to Restriction

You have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data with regard to the transmission of such data to third parties. An application for restriction must be sent in writing to the controller (see e.) accompanied by proof of identity.

The receipt of your application for restriction will be confirmed and your application will be completed within a reasonable time.

Such restriction may conflict with legal regulations. In such a case, the Companies will only transmit your personal data to third parties to the extent necessary to comply with the statutory requirements.

5. Right to Complaint

You have the right to file a complaint with the competent Liechtenstein supervisory authority. You may also contact another supervisory authority of an EU or EEA Member State, for example at your place of residence or work or at the place of the alleged infringement.

The contact details of the Data Protection Authority in Liechtenstein are as follows:
